FRANCE : PARLEZ VOUS FRANCAIS?

Your tour consultant: Delphine Delhaise: Delphine has been with Gullivers Sport Travel for the last 10 years. Originally from Belgium, Delphine has also lived in Spain and England and is fluent in French and Spanish. She has travelled extensively and has a great knowledge of Europe, particularly of France, the Benelux, Spain and Italy.

There is no better way to practice your French than to spend some time immersed in the language and the culture of wonderful France!

We can organise home stays with families in the Paris region. During your stay climb the Eiffel Tower, see the Arc de Triomphe, stroll along the Champs Elysées, explore the old quarter of Le Marais and the University Quarter of St Germain des Prés. In the evening return to your host family and spend the evening practicing your language skills.

We can also arrange French language lessons either in Paris or Montpellier and accommodation either with host families or hotels/ youth hostels. Sightseeing options can include the beautiful regions of Provence (Avignon, Nimes and Aix en Provence), Languedoc Roussillon (Carcassonne and Perpignan) and Toulouse.

France is a wonderful place to enjoy the sights, the food and friendliness of the locals while mastering their beautiful language!

Alternatively if you would like to experience a touch of France in the South Pacific we can organise tours to New Caledonia.

ITALY: TU PARLI IN ITALIANO?

Your tour consultant: Clare Ferrante: Clare has been working in the travel industry for the last 25 years and has tremendous organisational and meticulous skills in preparing special interest tours.

In the last 12 years Clare has been solely involved in arranging school group tours with great success. Her knowledge of several European languages and her own Italian background facilitate her work with local suppliers.

Clare has escorted quite a few tours to Italy and Europe.

The tours have always been a great success. Clare keeps the teachers informed during the tour so that they are part of the whole process.

The teachers enjoy her company and she endears herself to the students.

Italy is the country that offers quite a varied selection of options.

Students can practice their language skills when shopping or ordering meals when they are on tour, plus improve their vocabulary when listening to the locals speaking in their language.

Language classes can be included in tours in Rome, Florence, Venice, Perugia and Sorrento.

Students will experience stages of Italy's history. They will see and learn about majestic masterpieces such as Michelangelo's David in Florence, the Vatican and Sistine Chapel in Rome, and the buried cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum.

They will have the opportunity to climb Mt Vesuvius in Naples and visit the medieval towns of San Gimignano Siena and Venice.

Food is a very important facet of Italian culture. Students will experience the various regional cuisines when on tour, and have the opportunity to share their meals with locals and their families in various restaurants.

Workshops of Venetian Mask Making are also available for the students.

JAPAN

Your tour consultant: Melissa Cramp: Melissa has an extensive travel background however her true passion is the unique destination of Japan. Her diversity and product knowledge for Japan is truly immense.

Melissa has worked in the Japanese environment for numerous years and has frequently escorted Australian tours to this fascinating land.

A trip to Japan is a wonderful experience for students and their teachers due to the diversity, culture and history that are provided by this unique destination. Students have the opportunity to step outside their comfort zone and experience a culture that is truly different to life back home.

Whilst in Japan students will have the opportunity to visit famous cities such as Tokyo, Kyoto and Osaka just to name a few. They also will experience one of Japan's most famous attractions – a trip on the Bullet Train; this in itself is a true highlight for any tour to Japan.

A tour to Japan would not be complete without visiting the numerous regions of Tokyo, such as Asakusa where you will witness one of the oldest temples still standing amongst a modern Tokyo city environment. Or visit the numerous temples and shrines that Kyoto is famous for. Students will also learn about the history of the Second World War in cities such as Nagasaki and Hiroshima and the importance of this outcome on the world arena.

Students have numerous opportunities to practise and perfect their language skills. At Gullivers Sport Travel we are also able to organise sporting events such as rugby or soccer match fixtures with local high schools, visit major sporting stadiums and events or participate in a traditional Japanese tea ceremony.

Other destinations such as Germany, Spain, New Caledonia etc can be organised.
